*References can be submitted online or in your packet of supporting documents. Please go to <http://onelessministries.org/adoptiongrant/> to find the link if you would like to e-mail your references. If you would like to mail in your reference forms, please use the link to print off the reference forms and give them to your references. After they are filled out, please have your references give them back to you in sealed envelopes and include them with your packet of supporting documents. If your pastor has completed a reference for you within the past year, you may make a copy of his reference (in lieu of him completing our specific reference form) and include it in your packet of supporting documents. All documents must be mailed together in one large envelope.
